

Calendar of Progress & Upcoming Events

01-04 March 1999	LTBP hosts an environmental education workshop led by Monique Trudel in Kigoma, Tanzania.	20 June 1999	Ms. Karen Zwick joins LTBP as the Socio-economics facilitator. She is based in Bujumbura, Burundi.
08-18 March 1999	Intensive taxonomic training course for the regional BIOSS teams in Kigoma.	30 June - 12 July 1999	IWACO, a Dutch environmental consulting company, completes a clean-up and environmental impact assessment of TANESCO, the Tanzanian power station, in Kigoma.
19 March 1999	Renovation of the Centre de Recherche (CRH) Uvira, DR Congois reinitiated after delays due to insecurity in the region.	05 July - 13 August 1999	Twelve African students (three each from Burundi, DR Congo, Tanzania and Zambia) participate in the Nyanza Project, an intensive training course for university students designed to give classroom, laboratory and field training in the geology, limnology and biology of large tropical lakes.
22 March - 08 April 1999	Regional BIOSS teams survey Mahale Mountains National Park, Tanzania.
15-16 April 1999	Project management meeting in UK to discuss the recommendations of the Mid-Term Evaluation.	07 July - 17 July 1999	LTBP hosts a "Training of Trainers" workshop in Bujumbura. Led by Ms. Rachel Roland and Ms. Monique Trudel, four participants from each riparian country, attended, representing NGOs and national institutions charged with environmental education.
18-21 May 1999	Vicki Cowan represents LTBP at the LTR Project meetings in Lusaka, Zambia.
25-27 May 1999	LTBP holds its Tripartite Review (riparian countries, NRI consortium and donor/executing agencies) in Nairobi, Kenya	22 August 1999	LTBP celebrates the completion of renovations and the installation of new equipment in the Centre de Recherche en Hydrobiologie in Uvira, DR Congo.
28-29 May 1999	UNOPS representatives, Mr. Ingolf Schuetz-Mueller and Ms. Margaret Chi, visit Bujumbura and meet with the Minister of Land Planning and the Environment, the National Co-ordinator for Burundi, and members of the LTBP Bujumbura Station.	24 August 1999	Mr. Robert H. Lindley joins LTBP as the Fishing Practices Facilitator. He is based in Bujumbura, Burundi.
28 May - 05 June 1999	David Silverside, LTBP Project Manager for NRI, visits Bujumbura and Uvira Stations.
05 June 1999	Ms. Cecile Gakima in Burundi and Mr. Bartholomew Tarimo in Tanzania co-ordinate activities in their respective countries to commemorate World Environment Day.
01-18 June 1999	Alan Mills, GIS specialist, visits Bujumbura, Kigoma, Dar es Salaam and Lusaka in a mission to evaluate existing GIS capacity in the region and prepare for the transfer of the LTBP GIS to the region.		